

BUDGET BEAUTY

Dolly Parton once said: "You don't need to buy expensive cosmetics; almost anything will do if you know how to apply it." And of course we completely agree with the pint-sized country and western icon. Here are some beauty products picked out by Dubai-based make-up artist Enrica Bhatia (pictured right), that are both affordable and effective. Enrica was born in London and brought up in Dubai meaning when it comes to beauty she knows how to mix UAE glam with the street edginess of the likes of Soho or Shoreditch. If you want to look a million dirhams but pay less than a hundred, here are Enrica's fantastic tips and cut price aids to help you get there.

ENRICA'S BEAUTY MUST-HAVES

(ALL UNDER AED 100)

1 Maybelline's Eyestudio Lasting Drama Gel Eyeliner

(AED 47 at Lifestyle): This product is one I can't live without! I love the fact that it comes with its own applicator brush for application, it doesn't feel dry or cakey on your eyes, even if you leave it on for the whole day. If you're an eyeliner fan, this is a must-have!

2 Bioderma Purifying Cleansing Solution

(AED 72 at most pharmacies): This is by far the most effective cleansing solution in the market! One wipe of this solution, and you'll find all the dirt on your skin rubbed away. This cleanser acts as a toner as well, so it's my travel essential no matter where in the world I go.

3 MaxFactor Excess Volume Extreme Impact Mascara:

(AED 81 at Lifestyle): What sets this product apart from other mascaras is the combination of the dual sided wands, the first for 'Extreme Volume' and the second for 'Intense Dark Lacquer'. This combination really gives the intensity and volume at the same time, giving you that glamorous effect.

4 The Original Beauty Blender

(AED 80 at Sephora): It really is Makeup's Best Friend (that's their slogan)! I feel this is the most economical and useful beauty buy for us girls; it does the work of blending, evening out and removing excess makeup. Apart from foundation, it can be used for powder, concealer and cream blush too, giving a flawless airbrushed finish to your complexion.

5 L'Oreal La Palette Nude:
(AED 84 at boots.com): One of the most practical eyeshadow palettes that is a real value for money. It highlights your eyes in the most subtle way. And the tones and pigments complement each other really well making it so easy to work with light and dark colours, to create a day or night look.
